Entrance Hymn Love Divine, All Loves Excelling

1. Love divine, all loves excelling, Joy of heav'n, to earth come down! Fix in us your humble dwelling; All your faithful mercies crown. Jesus, source of all compassion, Love unbounded, love all pure; Visit us with your salvation, Let your love in us endure.
2. Come almighty to deliver; Let us all your life receive; Suddenly return and never, Nevermore your temples leave. Lord, we would be always blessing, Serve you as your hosts above, Pray, and praise you without ceasing. Glory in your precious love.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading: Jeremiah 1: 4-5, 17-19

The word of the Lord came to me, saying: Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you, a prophet to the nations I appointed you. But do you gird your loins; stand up and tell them all that I command you. Be not crushed on their account, as though I would leave you crushed before them; for it is I this day who have made you a fortified city, a pillar of iron, a wall of brass, against the whole land: against Judah's kings and princes, against its priests and people. They will fight against you but not prevail over you, for I am with you to deliver you, says the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalms 71: 1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 15, 17

I will sing of your salvation.

- In you, O Lord, I take refuge; let me never be put to shame.
In your justice rescue me, and deliver me; incline your ear to me, and save me.
- Be my rock of refuge, a stronghold to give me safety, for you are my rock and my fortress. O my God, rescue me from the hand of the wicked.
- For you are my hope, O Lord; my trust, O God, from my youth.
On you I depend from birth; from my mother's womb you are my strength.
- My mouth shall declare your justice, day by day your salvation.
O God, you have taught me from my youth, and till the present I proclaim your wondrous deeds.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12: 31 – 13: 13

Brothers and sisters: Strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts. But I shall show you a still more excellent way. If I speak in human and angelic tongues, but do not have love, I am a resounding gong or a clashing cymbal. And if I have the gift of prophecy, and comprehend all mysteries and all knowledge; if I have all faith so as to move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away everything I own, and if I hand my body over so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing. Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails. If there are prophecies, they will be brought to nothing; if tongues, they will cease; if knowledge, it will be brought to nothing. For we know partially and we prophesy partially, but when the perfect comes, the partial will pass away. When I was a child, I used to talk as a child, think as a child, reason as a child; when I became a man, I put aside childish things. At present we see indistinctly, as in a mirror, but then face to face. At present I know partially; then I shall know fully, as I am fully known. So faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Alleluia: Luke 4: 18

Alleluia, alleluia.

The Lord sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor, to proclaim liberty to captives.

Gospel: Luke 4: 21-30

Jesus began speaking in the synagogue, saying: "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." And all spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, "Isn't this the son of Joseph?" He said to them, "Surely you will quote me this proverb, 'Physician, cure yourself,' and say, 'Do here in your native place the things that we heard were done in Capernaum.'" And he said, "Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place. Indeed, I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah when the sky was closed for three and a half years and a severe famine spread over the entire land. It was to none of these that Elijah was sent, but only to a widow in Zarephath in the land of Sidon. Again, there were many lepers in Israel during the time of Elisha the prophet; yet not one of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian." When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. They rose up, drove him out of town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

(All bow towards the tabernacle)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory Hymn: Endless Is Your Love

Refrain: You know my heart. You know my mind. You know my words long before I speak them. There is no place that I can hide. Endless is your love for us. How vast the sum of all your deeds! Endless is your love for us.

1. Surely there's a place even you don't know. If I can climb there, if I fly there, can I hide from you? (Refrain)
2. Can't I hide at night, darkness be my light? Can you see the day in darkness, can you find me there? (Refrain)
3. Wonderful your works, countless as the sand. Earth and heaven know your beauty, fashioned by your hand. (Refrain)

Communion Hymn: Ubi Caritas

Refrain: Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est.

1. We gather together in the love of Christ; let each one be glad in him and rejoice.
Our God is alive, the God of love is near; so love one another with a heart sincere. (Refrain)
2. We, the many, become one body as the Spirit binds, and we seek to be one in Christ and one in heart and mind.
Let all quarrels, all division, all our conflict cease; then will Christ truly dwell among us as our Lord of Peace. (Refrain)
3. Then, joined with the blessed, filled with hope and grace, dear Lord, in great glory may we see your face.
Our joy none can measure, joy that knows no end, resounding from endless age to age. Amen. (Refrain)

Recessional: Now Thank We All Our God

1. Now thank we all our God With heart, and hands, and voices, Who wondrous things hath done, In whom his world rejoices; Who, from our mother's arms Hath blessed us on our way With countless gifts of love, And still is ours today.
2. O may this gracious God Through all our life be near us, With ever joyful hearts And blessed peace to cheer us; Preserve us in his grace, And guide us in distress; And free us from all sin, Till heaven we possess.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Administrator's Note

My Dear Friends of Christ the Good Shepherd,

As CTGS Parish Administrator for the last six months, accomplishments have been made to make our Parish truly vibrant and filled with the Holy Spirit. The mantra of "I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." (John 13:34-35). To love and serve everyone who comes through the doors of Christ the Good Shepherd, regardless of one's language, appearance, or heritage, we are all Children of God. We are called to be disciples. The new administration of Christ the Good Shepherd, Fr. Infanti, Father John, and I, have been leading the Parish in a new direction. We want to thank everyone for your continued support and love. As many of you have said to me personally: Our Parish needs to change; we need life in the Parish again. My dear friends, together we can do this. I realize that change may be difficult, but change is required for our continual conversion. These same words were said when I first arrived.

These changes began with Sacred Heart Church opening once again, not only to the Parish Community but to the City of Vineland. I realize that Sacred Heart was opened for funerals and weddings, but there is much more to Parish life than this. Sacred Heart Church needed to open for our Parishioners and the City of Vineland to come and worship. Additionally, Bishop Schad School Masses now have added music to their liturgy, and the school bathrooms have been remodeled. Spanish masses have been added to the Parish, occurring once a month. The weekly bulletin has been brought back, weekend readings and music have been added for our Parishioners, and a "Did you know?" section has been placed in the bulletin as well.

Throughout the property of St. Isidore, trees have been trimmed and cut for safety and security. Our Pro-Life Memorial has been cleaned for the first time in many years. Although the project took longer than originally planned, the new Rectory and Parish Office flooring has now been installed as of the second week of January 2022. The entrance to St. Isidore Church has also been painted. The sanctuary cross for Sacred Heart Church has been purchased and a plan is in place for it to be erected once the new mount is complete. With the Lord's help this will be accomplished soon.

An Advent Retreat was conducted for the Parish in December and led by Fr. Ariel Hernandez, with lunch generously donated by DeMarco Luisi Funeral Home. The celebration of our Lady of Guadalupe featured a procession through the streets of the City of Vineland. Rone's Funeral Home made the platform for our icon and statue of our Blessed Mother. More than 1,300 people were with us live on FACEBOOK, in addition to those that traveled with us throughout Vineland. A Lenten Retreat has been set for March 25-26, 2022. Monsignor Pablo Navarro, from the Archdiocese of Miami, will conduct this most important retreat for our Parish Community. Look out soon for a report and update on Catholic Strong.

Our Christmas fundraiser made $15,700.00, and our Parish Christmas Offertory was over $44,000.00! This is an unbelievable accomplishment! We have seen a boost in attendance at our Parish Masses and our collections have increased tremendously. The financial status was addressed in July 2021, with a Diocesan audited being completed. Monthly, quarterly, and a bi-annual report of Parish Finances have been given to you with this bulletin. As I said in the beginning, transparency is important.

We have many more things to come, and I can't wait to share them with each and every one of you.

Also, on the following page is a letter that I sent to the Parish Pastoral Council of CTGS last week. I am reforming the Parish Pastoral Council and all members have been informed that a "total reconstitution" of this council will be done. With the awareness of Diocesan Officials, I will look for guidance from the Parish Trustees and Parochial Vicars as we move to discern the vision that our Parish needs. I thank you in advance for your continued cooperation.

To Christ the Good Shepherd Parish Council:

Over the last six months, I have had the pleasure of learning about the Parish, but more importantly about the Parish needs. In that light and in accord with Diocesan Statutes and with consultation from the Diocese, I have decided to have a “total reconstitution” of the Parish Council.

It is my hope and prayer that this refreshing of an important Parish structure will not only aid me in my role of Shepherding the Parish, but also better address the needs of the Parish Community as whole.

I ask for your prayers and the intercession of the Holy Spirit that we move in a way that is pleasing God and furthering the mission in proclaiming and spreading the Gospel, to the good People of Christ the Good Shepherd.

After Easter, I will begin the mission to rebuild the Parish Council with the vision of moving forward with ministries of Christ the Good Shepherd. I will be looking for guidance from my fellow Priests and Trustees of the Parish.

I want to take this opportunity to thank all of you who have served unselfishly to further the ministries of the Parish. May God bless you all and keep you safe.

In Christ,

Fr. Junior Flores

CATHOLIC ENGAGED ENCOUNTER

Catholic Engaged Encounter is a weekend away with other engaged couples which allows plenty of time alone as a couple to dialogue honestly and intensively about your prospective life together.

Ideas presented by a team of married couples and a priest or deacon stimulate personal reflection and private couple dialogue. Topics for discussion include: strengths and weaknesses, desires, ambitions, goals, attitudes about money, sexuality, children, family, your role in the church and society. The Sunday Mass celebration is an important part of the program.

Engaged Encounter Weekends are held at Pope John Paul II Retreat Center in Vineland, NJ. All weekends begin promptly at 8:00 PM, Friday evening, and close by 3:00 PM Sunday afternoon.

Upcoming Weekends

March 11, 12, & 13, 2022

June 10, 11, & 12, 2022

August 12, 13, & 14, 2022

November 11, 12, & 13, 2022

Registration for Engaged Encounter

The registration fee of $410 for Catholic Engaged Encounter includes lodging, meals, and program resources for the weekend for two people. To register, go to <https://camdencocese.org/engaged-encounter/>. Stewardship Sharing

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous..."

(1 CORINTHIANS 13:4)

Do you get jealous? Do you focus more on the things that other people have than on the gifts that God has given to you? Are you pompous? Do you acquire more possessions to impress others? At times we are all guilty of these things. Pray for Stewardship with humility. Humility helps us become less "self-centered" and become more "God-centered" for the sake of others.

THE MARTYRS OF LA FLORIDA AMERICAN CATHOLIC HISTORY #020

Over the span of about 200 years, up to 1,000 Catholic missionaries and natives, including men, women, and children, were martyred in what is now the US Southeast. Tom and Noelle Crowe tell us about the brave Catholics who refused to renounce Christ under persecution from both native peoples and European Protestants.
