Entrance Hymn: Enter the Journey

Refrain: Enter the journey. Come to the song. By God you are chosen, by name you are called to follow the vision, carry the cross. Enter the journey of faith as the fam'ly of God.

1. Enter the journey, the way may be long. Enter the journey, yet we are made strong. God's spirit will guide us, God's gifts will unfold. Enter the journey of hope! (Refrain)
2. Enter the journey, though lost and unsure. Enter the journey, God's peace will be yours. And all who are thirsting be filled with God's grace. Enter the journey of faith! (Refrain)

Gloria:

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading: Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8

In the year King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a high and lofty throne, with the train of his garment filling the temple. Seraphim were stationed above.

They cried one to the other, "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts! All the earth is filled with his glory!" At the sound of that cry, the frame of the door shook and the house was filled with smoke.

Then I said, "Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips, living among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!" Then one of the seraphim flew to me, holding an ember that he had taken with tongs from the altar.

He touched my mouth with it, and said, "See, now that this has touched your lips, your wickedness is removed, your sin purged."

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" "Here I am," I said; "send me!"

Responsorial Psalm: Psalms 138:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 7-8

In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

I am reminding you, brothers and sisters, of the gospel I preached to you, which you indeed received and in which you also stand. Through it you are also being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you, unless you believed in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I also received; that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures; that he was buried; that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures; that he appeared to Cephas, then to the Twelve. After that, Christ appeared to more than five hundred brothers at once, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep. After that he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one born abnormally, he appeared to me. For I am the least of the apostles, not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me has not been ineffective. Indeed, I have toiled harder than all of them; not I, however, but the grace of God that is with me. Therefore, whether it be I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

Gospel: Luke 5:1-11

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret. He saw two boats there alongside the lake; the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, he asked him to put out a short distance from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Simon said in reply, "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets." When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that the boats were in danger of sinking. When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." For astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him, and likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners of Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.

Profession of Faith:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

(All bow towards the tabernacle)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory Hymn: Pescador de Hombres (Lord, You Have Come)

1. Lord, you have come to the seashore, neither searching for the rich nor the wise, desiring only that I should follow.
Refrain: O Lord, with your eyes set upon me, gently smiling, you have spoken my name; all I longed for I have found by the water, at your side, I will seek other shores.
2. Lord, see my goods, my possessions; in my boat you find no power, no wealth. Will you accept, then, my nets and labor? (Refrain)
3. Lord, take my hands and direct them. Help me spend myself in seeking the lost, returning love for the love you gave me. (Refrain)

Communion Hymn: Here I Am Lord

1. I, the Lord of sea and sky, I have heard my people cry. All who dwell in dark and sin My hand will save. I, who made the stars of night, I will make their darkness bright. Who will bear my light to them? Whom shall I send?
Refrain: Here I am, Lord. Is it I, Lord? I have heard you calling in the night. I will go, Lord, if you lead me. I will hold your people in my heart.
2. I, the Lord of snow and rain, I have borne my people's pain. I have wept for love of them. They turn away. I will break their hearts of stone, Give them hearts for love alone. I will speak my word to them. Whom shall I send? (Refrain)
3. I, the Lord of wind and flame, I will tend the poor and lame. I will set a feast for them. My hand will save. Finest bread I will provide Till their hearts be satisfied. I will give my life to them. Whom shall I send? (Refrain)

Recessional: Go Out, Go Out

Refrain: Go out, go out to all the world and tell the Good News, tell the Good, Good News! Go out, go out to all the world and tell the Good News, tell the Good, Good News!

1. Praise the LORD, praise the LORD, all you nations; Glorify him, glorify him, you peoples!
2. Steadfast, steadfast is his kindness toward us, and the faithfulness of the LORD endures!

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Administrator's Note

My Dear Friends of Christ the Good Shepherd,

As CTGS Parish Administrator for the last six months, accomplishments have been made to make our Parish truly vibrant and filled with the Holy Spirit. The mantra of "I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." (John 13:34-35) We are called to love and serve everyone who comes through the doors of Christ the Good Shepherd – no matter what language they may speak, no matter how they may look, and no matter what culture one might come from. We are all children of our Lord. We are called to be disciples. The new administration of Christ the Good Shepherd – Fr. Infanti, Fr. John, and I – have been leading the Parish in a new direction. We want to thank everyone for your continued support and love. Many of you have said to me personally: Our Parish needs to change; we need life in the Parish again. My dear friends, together we can do this. I realize that change may be difficult, but change is required for our continual conversion. These same words were said when I first arrived.

These changes began with Sacred Heart Church opening once again, not only to the Parish community but to the City of Vineland. I realize that Sacred Heart was opened for funerals and weddings, but there is much more to Parish life than this. Sacred Heart Church needed to reopen for our Parishioners and the City of Vineland to come and worship. Additionally, Bishop Schad School Masses have now added music to their liturgy, and the school bathrooms have been remodeled. Spanish Masses have been added to the Parish, occurring once a month. The weekly bulletin has been brought back with weekend readings and music added for our Parishioners, as well as a "Did you know?" section.

Throughout the property of St. Isidore, trees have been trimmed and cut for Parish safety and security. Our Pro-Life Memorial has been cleaned for the first time in many years. Although the project took longer than originally planned, the new Rectory and Parish Office flooring has been installed as of the second week of January 2022. The entrance to St. Isidore Church has also been painted. The sanctuary cross for Sacred Heart Church has been purchased and a plan is in place for it to be erected. With the Lord's help this will be accomplished soon.

An Advent Retreat was conducted for the Parish in December and led by Fr. Ariel Hernandez, with lunch paid for by DeMarco Luisi Funeral Home. The celebration of Our Lady of Guadalupe featured a procession through the streets of the City of Vineland. Rone's Funeral Home made the platform for our icon and statue of our Blessed Mother. More than 1,300 people were with us live on Facebook, in addition to those that traveled with us throughout Vineland. A Lenten Retreat has been set for March 25-26, 2022. Monsignor Pablo Navarro, from the Archdiocese of Miami, will conduct this most important retreat for our Parish Community. Look out soon for a report and update on Catholic Strong.

Our Christmas fundraiser made $15,700.00, and our Parish Christmas Offertory was over $44,000.00! This is an unbelievable accomplishment! We have seen a boost in attendance at our Parish Masses and our collections have increased tremendously. The financial status was addressed in July 2021, with a Diocesan audit being completed. Monthly, quarterly, and a bi-annual report of Parish finances have been given to you with this bulletin. As I said in the beginning, transparency is important.

We have many more things to come, and I can't wait to share them with each and every one of you.

P.S. On the following page is a letter that I sent to the Parish Pastoral Council of CTGS last week. I am reforming the Parish Pastoral Council and all members have been informed that I will be doing a "total reconstruction" of this council. With the awareness of Diocesan officials, I will look for guidance from the Parish Trustees and Parochial Vicars as we move to discern the vision that our Parish needs. I thank you in advance for your continued cooperation.

To Christ the Good Shepherd Parish Council:

Over the last six months, I have had the pleasure of learning about the Parish, but more importantly about the Parish needs. In that light and in accord with Diocesan Statutes and with consultation from the Diocese, I have decided to have a “total reconstitution” of the Parish Council.

It is my hope and prayer that this refreshing of an important Parish structure will not only aid me in my role of Shepherding the Parish, but also better address the needs of the Parish Community as whole.

I ask for your prayers and the intercession of the Holy Spirit that we move in a way that is pleasing God and furthering the mission in proclaiming and spreading the Gospel, to the good People of Christ the Good Shepherd.

After Easter, I will begin the mission to rebuild the Parish Council with the vision of moving forward with ministries of Christ the Good Shepherd. I will be looking for guidance from my fellow Priests and Trustees of the Parish.

I want to take this opportunity to thank all of you who have served unselfishly to further the ministries of the Parish. May God bless you all and keep you safe.

In Christ,

Fr. Junior Flores

CATHOLIC ENGAGED ENCOUNTER

Catholic Engaged Encounter is a weekend away with other engaged couples which allows plenty of time alone as a couple to dialogue honestly and intensively about your prospective life together.

Ideas presented by a team of married couples and a priest or deacon stimulate personal reflection and private couple dialogue. Topics for discussion include: strengths and weaknesses, desires, ambitions, goals, attitudes about money, sexuality, children, family, your role in the church and society. The Sunday Mass celebration is an important part of the program.

Engaged Encounter Weekends are held at Pope John Paul II Retreat Center in Vineland, NJ. All weekends begin promptly at 8:00 PM, Friday evening and close by 3:00 PM Sunday afternoon.

Upcoming Weekends

March 11, 12, & 13, 2022

June 10, 11, & 12, 2022

August 12, 13, & 14, 2022

November 11, 12, & 13, 2022

Stewardship Sharing

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying,
'Whom shall I send? Who will go for you?'"

'Here I am,' I said, 'send me!'"

(ISAIAH 6:8)

Every day, in little ways and in big ways, God asks, "Whom shall I send?" Whether it is someone to take on a new Stewardship ministry, to give a friendly smile to a stranger or to say a word of encouragement to a friend, God constantly provides opportunities to help someone in need. God is always talking to us; we just need to pay more attention. When you hear God calling, have the courage to walk through the door and say, "Here I am, Lord."

SWEET AS HONEY

Color Honey & J.D. ice fishing. Honey is fishing for answers.

J.D., Jesus said to the fisherman, "do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men". Will they use their nets to catch them?

Not with nets, with news, THE GOOD NEWS! As disciples, they will teach many people to obey Jesus and follow Him!
