First Reading: Isaiah 43: 16-21

Thus says the LORD, who opens a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters, who leads out chariots and horsemen, a powerful army, till they lie prostrate together, never to rise, snuffed out and quenched like a wick. Remember not the events of the past, the things of long ago consider not; see, I am doing something new! Now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? In the desert I make a way, in the wasteland, rivers. Wild beasts honor me, jackals and ostriches, for I put water in the desert and rivers in the wasteland for my chosen people to drink, the people whom I formed for myself, that they might announce my praise.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 126: 1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 6

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

- When the LORD brought back the captives of Zion, we were like men dreaming.
Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with rejoicing. R.
- Then they said among the nations, "The LORD has done great things for them."
The LORD has done great things for us; we are glad indeed. R.
- Restore our fortunes, O LORD, like the torrents in the southern desert.
Those that sow in tears shall reap rejoicing. R.
- Although they go forth weeping, carrying the seed to be sown,
They shall come back rejoicing, carrying their sheaves. R.

Second Reading: Philippians 3: 8-14

Brothers and sisters: I consider everything as a loss because of the supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having any righteousness of my own based on the law but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God, depending on faith to know him and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by being conformed to his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

It is not that I have already taken hold of it or have already attained perfect maturity, but I continue my pursuit in hope that I may possess it, since I have indeed been taken possession of by Christ Jesus. Brothers and sisters, I for my part do not consider myself to have taken possession. Just one thing: forgetting what lies behind but straining forward to what lies ahead, I continue my pursuit toward the goal, the prize of God's upward calling, in Christ Jesus.

Verse Before the Gospel

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory.

- Even now, says the Lord, return to me with your whole heart; for I am gracious and merciful.

Gospel: John 8: 1-11

Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. But early in the morning he arrived again in the temple area, and all the people started coming to him, and he sat down and taught them. Then the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery and made her stand in the middle. They said to him, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery. Now in the law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do you say?" They said this to test him, so that they could have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, he straightened up and said to them, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." Again he bent down and wrote on the ground. And in response, they went away one by one, beginning with the elders. So he was left alone with the woman before him. Then Jesus straightened up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" She replied, "No one, sir." Then Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more."

Profession of Faith:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(All bow towards the tabernacle)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Christ the Good Shepherd Parish

My Dear Friends in Christ,

As we continue into our 5th week of our Lenten journey, which is my first here in Christ the Good Shepherd Parish, I am reminded of the words that our Bishop Dennis Sullivan used on Pastoral Associates Day, which was held Wednesday, March 23rd: "We are one Diocese, we are one Church."

The Bishop went on to the lead morning prayer and stated, "The Lord God calls each of us to discipleship. We are called to serve one another. We are called to serve the Church." During Lent we are reminded and asked many questions, and one of those questions is "Who do we serve?" It is in this time of Lent that we look at ourselves and grow as true disciples of Christ. We keep our eyes on the Lord!

If we go through struggles – our eyes are on the Lord.

If we are angry – we keep our eyes on the Lord.

If we become disinterested and cold hearted – we remain with our eye on the Lord.

It is when we take our eyes away from the Lord that we begin to fall into sin.

Many challenges may come, but it is in the moment of these challenges, we truly find out what type of disciples we are.

In the meantime, I want to extend my gratitude and heartfelt love to Jill Baruffi, Molly and Michael Bedics, Director of Liturgy in the Diocese of Camden, and Arnie Santos Jr. for their discipleship in filling in with our music ministry.

It was truly amazing to see how the words of our Bishop rang through this Parish. "We are one Diocese, we are one Church."

Thank you for all your continual prayers.

In Christ,

Fr. Junior

@KofCvid2531

Are you asking yourself, "Who are the Knights of Columbus?"

When most people think of the Knights of Columbus they picture the 4th Degree Color Corp which attends Ceremonies and parades wearing their colorful regalia. However, the Knights are much more than these handful of men. Guided by four core principles (referred to as 'Degrees' of Knighthood): charity, unity, fraternity and patriotism, the Knights of Columbus Order reportedly gave millions of dollars to charity and provided millions of more hours in voluntary service. More information on the Knights may be found at the Order's web site: www.KofC.org or www.kofc2531.org

Are you being called to Knighthood?

There is a place in the Knights of Columbus for every man. Regardless of your age, financial situation or interests, the Knights of Columbus Order has something to offer you and you to offer them. If you are a male, 18 years or older, and a practical catholic, you may qualify for acceptance into our brotherhood. For more information on how to join the Knights, call Nick DeBello (856) 691-9069
