Gloria:

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 10: 34a, 37-43

Peter proceeded to speak and said: "You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name."

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 118: 1-2, 16-17, 22-23

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

- Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his mercy endures forever.
Let the house of Israel say, "His mercy endures forever." R.
- "The right hand of the LORD has struck with power; the right hand of the LORD is exalted.
I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD." R.
- The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.
By the LORD has this been done; it is wonderful in our eyes. R.

Second Reading (1st Option): Colossians 3: 1-4

Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Second Reading (2nd Option): 1 Corinthians 5: 6b-8

Brothers and sisters: Do you not know that a little yeast leavens all the dough? Clear out the old yeast, so that you may become a fresh batch of dough, inasmuch as you are unleavened. For our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed. Therefore, let us celebrate the feast, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Alleluia: 1 Corinthians 5: 7b-8a

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

- Christ, our paschal lamb, has been sacrificed; let us then feast with joy in the Lord. R.

Gospel: John 20: 1-9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

Profession of Faith:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

(All bow towards the tabernacle)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Administrator's Note

My Dear Friends of Christ the Good Shepherd,

Happy Easter!!!

Pope Francis once said: "The Easter message does not offer us a mirage or reveal a magic formula. It does not point to an escape from the difficult situations we are experiencing."

These words from Pope Francis make me want to ask one question: What are we experiencing this moment on this Easter day? Jesus Christ is our hope for all who continue to suffer. He gives us hope for a world, nation, and community that continue to suffer from this pandemic. He brings hope for families that have been separated because of wars, oppression, and hatred. Jesus brings us the gift of peace and reminds us that if we are faithful to Him, He will remain faithful to us. "If we died with Him, we will also live with Him; if we endure, we will also reign with Him. If we disown Him, He will also disown us; if we are faithless, He remains faithful, for He cannot disown himself." (2 Timothy 2-13)

As we continue to proclaim in one voice that our Lord has risen, what do we have to do in our lives to bring about and reflect this hope of peace and to remain faithful in Him? Do we need to forgive? Do we need to serve? Do we need to be a better person to one another? Whatever it may be, let us join together in this Easter season to be one of that true love that reflects the Risen Christ to each other.

May this Easter Season be one of hope and peace to all in our world, nation, community, and here at Christ the Good Shepherd Parish!

He has Risen,

Fr. Junior

KNIGHTS IN UNITY UKRAINE MISSION OF MERCY

KofC #2531 in Vineland, NJ is working closely with the KofC #15267 St. Wojciech in Poland. Together they are supporting John Paul II Council #15801 in Lviv, Ukraine. United in charity and fraternity, these Knights are supporting the Ukrainian refugees in Poland and the brave citizens who stayed behind to defend their country.

- Some cash donations will be used immediately by Vineland #2531 to purchase medical and other supplies from stores in Poland. The Polish Knights pick up the supplies Vineland purchases and will transport the supplies across the border into Ukraine.
- Vineland Knights have obtained a 40 ft. container that will be filled with donated items and items purchased by Vineland Knights with donated money. The items will be shipped to the Knights in Poland and the Polish Knights will distribute the items to provide support and relief to refugees in Poland and displaced citizens in Ukraine.
