Gloria:

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 13: 14, 43-52

Paul and Barnabas continued on from Perga and reached Antioch in Pisidia. On the sabbath they entered the synagogue and took their seats. Many Jews and worshipers who were converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to remain faithful to the grace of God.

On the following sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and with violent abuse contradicted what Paul said. Both Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and said, "It was necessary that the word of God be spoken to you first, but since you reject it and condemn yourselves as unworthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles. For so the Lord has commanded us, I have made you a light to the Gentiles, that you may be an instrument of salvation to the ends of the earth."

The Gentiles were delighted when they heard this and glorified the word of the Lord. All who were destined for eternal life came to believe, and the word of the Lord continued to spread through the whole region. The Jews, however, incited the women of prominence who were worshipers and the leading men of the city, stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their territory. So they shook the dust from their feet in protest against them, and went to Iconium. The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 100: 1-2, 3, 5

R. We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

- Sing joyfully to the LORD, all you lands; serve the LORD with gladness; come before him with joyful song. R.
- Know that the LORD is God; he made us, his we are; his people, the flock he tends. R.
- The LORD is good: his kindness endures forever, and his faithfulness, to all generations. R.

Second Reading: Revelation 7: 9, 14b-17

I, John, had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands.

Then one of the elders said to me, "These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

"For this reason they stand before God's throne and worship him day and night in his temple. The one who sits on the throne will shelter them. They will not hunger or thirst anymore, nor will the sun or any heat strike them. For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to springs of life-giving water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Alleluia: John 10:14

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

- I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine know me. R.

Gospel: John 10: 27-30

Jesus said: "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one."

Profession of Faith:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

(All bow towards the tabernacle)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Join Bishop Sullivan as he ordains five transitional deacons to the priesthood:

Administrator's Note

"My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me." (John 10:27)

My Dear Friends,

Please read this unbelievable article from Mike Riley. What an awesome article.

"My sheep hear my voice." One morning while shepherds were eating their breakfast, one of their sheep jumped off a 45-foot cliff to its death. Then, as they looked on, they were stunned as the rest of the flock followed. In all, 1,500 sheep mindlessly stumbled off the cliff. The only good news was that the last 1,000 were cushioned in their fall by the growing pile of those sheep who jumped first. According to witnesses, 450 sheep died that morning.

Throughout the Bible, human beings are often referred to as sheep (Psalm 100:3; Isaiah 53:6; Matthew 9:36). Easily distracted and susceptible to group influence, sheep would rather follow a multitude of sheep than the wisdom of their shepherd.

The Bible also describes sheep in a positive way. Jesus said, "I am the Good Shepherd My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me" (John 10:14 ; John 10:27). Those sheep who know the Good Shepherd's voice will not follow the voice of a stranger (John 10:3-5).

So the big question for us is: Which shepherd are we following? Are we following one another, self-centered shepherds, or the voice and direction of the Good Shepherd? (John 10:11; John 10:14; 1 Peter 2:25) Our challenge is to avoid the mistake of the sheep who blindly followed one another over the cliff. We must make it our daily purpose to ask ourselves: Are we listening for the voice of the Good Shepherd — are we truly following Him? (Luke 9:23).

May we hear the one true Shepherd's voice.

BLUE MASS

To honor all law enforcement officers, a special Mass will be held by St. Padre Pio Parish.

Monday, May 16th, 2022
7:00 PM

Our Lady of Pompeii Church
4680 Dante Avenue, Vineland, NJ

We invite all police officers, those presently serving their communities, all canine officers and their partners, officers who have retired, and relatives and friends of officers who have served and have answered their final call.

Following the Mass, refreshments will be served in Rosary Hall.

Please join us in honoring the men and women who work diligently every day to keep up and our communities safe.

Please call the Parish office at (856) 691-7526 to register.

Pray for Vocations!

As Catholics, we firmly believe that God has a plan for our lives! He calls some to marriage, some to the priesthood, and others to religious life or to live as generous single people. Fully living our own vocations—and teaching young people how to discern God's call—is a serious duty, but also a joyful one. During this week, please encourage the young people in your life—children, grandchildren, students, and friends—to be open if God calls them to priesthood or religious life.

Christ the Good Shepherd would like to thank all the teachers at Bishop Schad Regional School, Christ the Good Shepherd Preschool, and those who educate our youth. All of your hard work does not go unnoticed!

Rosary Rally in honor of "The Month of Mary, Our Blessed Mother"

KNIGHTS IN UNITY UKRAINE MISSION OF MERCY

KofC #2531 in Vineland, NJ is working closely with the KofC #15267 St. Wojciech in Poland. Together they are supporting John Paul II Council #15801 in Lviv, Ukraine. United in charity and fraternity, these Knights are supporting the Ukrainian refugees in Poland and the brave citizens who stayed behind to defend their country.

- Some cash donations will be used immediately by Vineland #2531 to purchase medical and other supplies from stores in Poland. The Polish Knights pick up the supplies Vineland purchases and will transport the supplies across the border into Ukraine.
- Vineland Knights have obtained a 40 ft. container that will be filled with donated items and items purchased by Vineland Knights with donated money. The items will be shipped to the Knights in Poland and the Polish Knights will distribute the items to provide support and relief to refugees in Poland and displaced citizens in Ukraine.

Stewardship Sharing
Fourth Sunday of Easter

“The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.”

(ACTS 13:52)

The disciples heard Our Lord's call and were able to spread the Gospel message with strength and vitality. We, too, can experience that same joy if we make room for the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts. When we live Stewardship by using our gifts in the way that God intends, He fills us with supernatural joy. A joy that others notice and are attracted to!

A Prayer for

Mothers

Good and Gentle God,
 we pray in gratitude for our mothers and for all the women of theory who have joined with you in the wonder of bringing forth new life. You who became human through a woman, grant to all mothers the courage they need to face the uncertain future that life with children always brings.

Give them the strength to live and to be loved in return, not perfectly, but humanly.

Give them the faithful support of husband, family and friends as they care for the physical and spiritual growth of their children.

Give them joy and delight in their children to sustain them through the trials of motherhood. Most of all, give them the wisdom to turn to you for help when they need it most.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Sacred Heart Church is looking for volunteers to help with the washing and ironing of the altar linens used at Mass.

This would be for a two-week shift for the year.

For more information or to get involved in this parish ministry at Christ the Good Shepherd, please contact Josephine Walker at (856) 691-3406.

Priest: Lord, we bless you, for you are full of mercy and justice: you humble the proud and exalt the lowly.

All: You gave us the highest example of your divine wisdom in the mystery of the Word made flesh and of his virgin Mother.

Priest: Your Son, humbled by death, rose glorious at your right hand, the King of all creation.

All: The Virgin, who acknowledged herself to be a servant, became the Mother of our Redeemer and of those reborn in her Son. Now, raised above the angels, she prays for all: the Queen of mercy and grace.

Priest: Bless us as we crown this image of the Mother of your Son (of Christ and his Mother).

All: We confess Christ to be the King of creation and call upon Mary, our Queen. May we walk in their likeness, spending ourselves for the sake of others. Content with our place in this life, may we one day hear your voice inviting us to take our place in heaven and receive the crown of victory.
