Readings for the Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Zep 2:3; 3:12-13

Seek the LORD, all you humble of the earth, who have observed his law; seek justice, seek humility; perhaps you may be sheltered on the day of the LORD's anger. But I will leave as a remnant in your midst a people humble and lowly, who shall take refuge in the name of the LORD: the remnant of Israel. They shall do no wrong and speak no lies; nor shall there be found in their mouths a deceitful tongue; they shall pasture and couch their flocks with none to disturb them.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 146:6-7, 8-9, 9-10

R. Blessed are the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs!

The LORD keeps faith forever, secures justice for the oppressed, gives food to the hungry. The LORD sets captives free.

R. Blessed are the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs!

The LORD gives sight to the blind; the LORD raises up those who were bowed down. The LORD loves the just; the LORD protects strangers.

R. Blessed are the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs!

The fatherless and the widow the LORD sustains, but the way of the wicked he thwarts. The LORD shall reign forever; your God, O Zion, through all generations. Alleluia.

R. Blessed are the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs!

Second Reading: 1 Cor 1:26-31

Consider your own calling, brothers and sisters. Not many of you were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth. Rather, God chose the foolish of the world to shame the wise, and God chose the weak of the world to shame the strong, and God chose the lowly and despised of the world, those who count for nothing, to reduce to nothing those who are something, so that no human being might boast before God. It is due to him that you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God, as well as righteousness, sanctification, and redemption, so that, as it is written, "Whoever boasts, should boast in the Lord."

Alleluia: Mt 5:12a

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Rejoice and be glad; your reward will be great in heaven..

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel: Mt 4:12-23 or 4:12-17

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him. He began to teach them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven."

Profession of Faith:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

(All bow towards the tabernacle)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Administrator's Note

My Dear Friends,

We hear in the Gospel Jesus giving us 8 teachings. These teachings encourage us to "turn" to Him and hear His call. The calling of our discipleship in which we heard in last week's Gospel, "Repent for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand." What the world sees as tragic or empty, Jesus sees as blessed: humility, mourning, gentleness, peacefulness and other virtues. Jesus lived by these qualities Himself and we can notice them in His words and actions during His life. He encourages us to live in the Spirit of the Beatitudes because He Himself lived them and knew that a life of integrity and honesty is indeed a blessed one.

Just over a month ago, we celebrated the Birth of our Lord. In our Churches and in many families a manger was placed to represent and show that something special truly happened. Our God sent His only Son, to teach us how God wants us to live.

Today we begin Catholic Schools Week in our Diocese. We all know of the reality that our Catholic Schools are facing. However, the "Spirit" to continue to teach and form our Catholic beliefs, identity, and the way the Lord wants us to live continues. Parents, our schools, our Churches need you more than ever. We must hear the teachings of the Beatitudes today and welcome the challenges Jesus Christ presents to us, so our Catholic Schools, where our children are, may represent and embrace the teachings of our Lord.

So, as your Administrator, I ask all parents, teachers, staff, volunteers, supporters, and my Parish Priests to become stronger, better, smarter, kinder, prayerful, holy, and always eager to do the Will of God. When we accept this calling we are "Loving God and loving thy neighbor." When we accept this call we "turn" towards Christ and accept the calling of being disciples and teachers of His Word. But, most importantly, we are remembering and representing what the manger on Christmas truly means. "God so loved the world, He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life." (John 3:16) Our Lord loves us immensely and He wants us to express our daily living to one another, but most importantly to our children.

May this Catholic Schools Week be one of so many blessings here at Christ the Good Shepherd Parish and our children at Bishop Schad Regional School.

Blessings,

Fr. Junior

Queridos amigos,

Escuchamos en el Evangelio a Jesús dándonos 8 enseñanzas. Estas enseñanzas nos animan a "volvemos" a Él y a escuchar Su llamada. La llamada de nuestro discipulado que escuchamos en el Evangelio de la semana pasada: "Arrepentíos porque el Reino de los Cielos está cerca". Lo que el mundo ve como trágico o vacío, Jesús lo ve como bendito: humildad, luto, gentileza, paz y otras virtudes. Jesús mismo vivió según estas cualidades y podemos notarlas en sus palabras y acciones durante su vida. Nos anima a vivir en el espíritu de las Bienaventuranzas porque Él mismo las vivió y sabía que una vida íntegra y honesta es realmente una vida bendecida.

Hace poco más de un mes celebramos el Nacimiento de Nuestro Señor. En nuestras Iglesias y en muchas familias se colocó un pesebre para representar y mostrar que realmente ocurrió algo especial. Nuestro Dios envió a su único Hijo, para enseñarnos cómo Dios quiere que vivamos.

Hoy comenzamos la Semana de las Escuelas Católicas en nuestra Diócesis. Todos sabemos de la realidad que enfrentan nuestras Escuelas Católicas. Sin embargo, el "Espíritu" para continuar enseñando y formando nuestras creencias Católicas, identidad, y la manera en que el Señor quiere que vivamos continúa. Padres, nuestras escuelas, nuestras Iglesias los necesitan más que nunca. Debemos escuchar las enseñanzas de las Bienaventuranzas hoy y acoger los desafíos que Jesucristo nos presenta, para que nuestras Escuelas Católicas, donde están nuestros hijos, representen y abracen las enseñanzas de nuestro Señor.

Así que, como su Administrador, les pido a todos los padres, maestros, personal, voluntarios, simpatizantes y a mi Párroco que se vuelvan más fuertes, mejores, más inteligentes, más amables, orantes, santos y siempre deseosos de hacer la Voluntad de Dios. Cuando aceptamos este llamado estamos "Amando a Dios y amando al prójimo". Cuando aceptamos esta llamada nos "volvemos" hacia Cristo y aceptamos la llamada de ser discípulos y maestros de Su Palabra. Pero, lo más importante, estamos recordando y representando lo que realmente significa el pesebre en Navidad. "Tanto amó Dios al mundo, que dio a su Hijo único, para que todo el que crea en Él no perezca, sino que tenga vida eterna". (Juan 3:16) Nuestro Señor nos ama inmensamente y quiere que lo expresemos en nuestra vida diaria a los demás, pero sobre todo a nuestros hijos.

Que esta Semana de Escuelas Católicas sea una de tantas bendiciones aquí en la Parroquia Cristo Buen Pastor y a nuestros niños en la Escuela Regional Obispo Schad.

Bendiciones,

Fr. Junior

Epiphany Home Blessing

At one time or another, many have seen the chalk markings on the inside or outside lintel of a door. What does this mean? On the Feast of the Epiphany, we celebrate the Magi visiting the infant Jesus to honor Him as the come Messiah. The tradition has been for families to gather with the parish priest who blesses the entrance door for Jesus to be a daily guest in the home. The markings are made with blessed chalk representing the new year and the first initials of the Magi 20+C+M+B+23, along with the family reciting prayers with the priest. The rooms of the home are also blessed with holy water.

Father Infanti will offer this blessing for the homes of any parishioners who would like to have the Epiphany Home Blessing. The markings are traditionally done with blessed chalk on the lintel OR by placing a printed marker instead. If you would like your home blessed, please call the office (856) 691-9077 and a time for the blessing can be scheduled on a Monday, Wednesday or Saturday January through February.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION PLEASE READ

Due to parishioners at Christ the Good Shepherd Parish, we have been outsourcing our bulk mailing for many years. Monthly collection envelopes and holiday envelopes are two of the services provided. As with most bulk mailing companies, envelope information must be submitted two months prior to the new mailing company. Unbeknownst to us, the company we were using closed their mailing department and has given our account to a new mailing company. Since this change, we have experienced issues and delays with our bulk mailings and parishioner collection envelopes. We have been diligently working with our contact at the new mailing company to correct this issue, with poor results.

In the new year, Christ the Good Shepherd Parish will be looking for a new company for bulk mailings and collection envelopes. We apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused. Until this is resolved, please use regular envelopes writing your name and envelope number, if you have it, so you can still get credit for your tithes.

The 2022 tax statements will be available after next week. Due to the minimal number of calls we have received so far, if you are interested in getting your statement mailed out to you, please contact the office or email Christina at ctgssecretary@gmail.com

ABOUT VALLIMAR:

Vallimar Jansen is a highly regarded inspirational/catechetical speaker, singer, composer and recording artist. She is also a college professor, a leader of worship and prayer, and a workshop presenter at conferences across the US and abroad. Vallimar received most of her training in music and performance from Howard University in Washington, DC. She holds professional degrees in the arts from California State University, San Bernardino, and the University of California, Santa Barbara. She sings a broad range of styles from traditional to contemporary. In 2005, she released her first solo collection, You Gotta Move. Other collections include Anointing, Psalms from the Soul and Give God the Glory. Vallimar composes much of her music with the help of her husband, Frank. They live in California and have three children.

Come, be entertained by uplifting music and be inspired by dynamic storytelling. With her unique blend of Scripture proclamation, music, dramatic storytelling and reflection, Vallimar Jansen will present stories of six African American men and women, ordinary people who lived extraordinary lives of virtue. They have been raised up by our Church and declared "Venerable" and "Servant of God," as they move toward becoming the first African American saints. Through drama, music and visuals come learn what these holy people can teach us about being exemplary missionary disciples. How can we be better pilgrims and companions on the journey, given today's challenges? In this pandemic and post-pandemic world, let us come together and learn from these holy ones, some of the ways to excel at accompanying each other on the formative journey.

CTGS Nurse Updates For January 2023

January 30th : Alzheimer's Awareness

Alzheimer's Disease is the most common cause of dementia (a word used to describe symptoms such as memory loss, loss of judgement, and declining intellectual function). It is a progressive brain disorder that can impact memory, thinking, language skills, and motor skills. Because it is a progressive disorder, patients with Alzheimer's Disease typically see their symptoms increase over time. Early Alzheimer's Disease patients may experience forgetfulness or difficulty in completing routine tasks while those with more advanced disease may not recognize their friends or family and have trouble with speech and movement. Currently more than 6 million Americans are living with Alzheimer's Disease. The causes of Alzheimer's Disease are not fully understood however several factors are thought to contribute including genetics (ie. passed down through a family), age-related changes in the brain, and health/lifestyle factors such as obesity, heart disease, high blood pressure, and exposure to pollutants. Persons with advanced Alzheimer's Disease may not feel hungry or thirsty and may lose interest in their hygiene or appearance. They may also have delusions or become spontaneous and/or not recognize their limits. These symptoms place patients at a high risk for injury or decline. Caring for Alzheimer's patients can be trying. Programs and services are available to help. The Alzheimer's foundation has a social services help line which can assist in finding support and resources for caregivers: 1-866-8484. Clinical trials are underway to identify new treatments that may help slow or stop the progression of Alzheimer's Disease. You can learn more by visiting: <https://www.alzheimers.gov/>
