Readings for the The Nativity of the Lord

First Reading: Is 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not be silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her vindication shines forth like the dawn and her victory like a burning torch. Nations shall behold your vindication, and all the kings your glory; you shall be called by a new name pronounced by the mouth of the LORD. You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the LORD, a royal diadem held by your God. No more shall people call you "Forsaken," or your land "Desolate," but you shall be called "My Delight," and your land "Espoused." For the LORD delights in you and makes your land his spouse. As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 89:4-5, 16-17, 27, 29

R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

I have made a covenant with my chosen one, I have sworn to David my servant: Forever will I confirm your posterity and establish your throne for all generations..

R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

Blessed the people who know the joyful shout; in the light of your countenance, O LORD, they walk. At your name they rejoice all the day, and through your justice they are exalted.

R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

He shall say of me, "You are my father, my God, the rock, my savior." Forever I will maintain my kindness toward him, and my covenant with him stands firm.

R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

Second Reading: Acts 13:16-17, 22-25

When Paul reached Antioch in Pisidia and entered the synagogue, he stood up, motioned with his hand, and said, "Fellow Israelites and you others who are God-fearing, listen. The God of this people Israel chose our ancestors and exalted the people during their sojourn in the land of Egypt. With uplifted arm he led them out of it. Then he removed Saul and raised up David as king; of him he testified, 'I have found David, son of Jesse, a man after my own heart; he will carry out my every wish.' From this man's descendants God, according to his promise, has brought to Israel a savior, Jesus. John heralded his coming by proclaiming a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel; and as John was completing his course, he would say, 'What do you suppose that I am? I am not he. Behold, one is coming after me; I am not worthy to unfasten the sandals of his feet.'"

Alleluia:

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Tomorrow the wickedness of the earth will be destroyed:
the Savior of the world will reign over us.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel: Mt 1:1-25

The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham. Abraham became the father of Isaac, Isaac the father of Jacob, Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers. Judah became the father of Perez and Zerah, whose mother was Tamar. Perez became the father of Hezron, Hezron the father of Ram, Ram the father of Amminadab. Amminadab became the father of Nahshon, Nahshon the father of Salmon, Salmon the father of Boaz, whose mother was Rahab. Boaz became the father of Obed, whose mother was Ruth. Obed became the father of Jesse, Jesse the father of David the king. David became the father of Solomon, whose mother had been the wife of Uriah. Solomon became the father of Rehoboam, Rehoboam the father of Abijah, Abijah the father of Asaph. Asaph became the father of Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat the father of Joram, Joram the father of Uzziah. Uzziah became the father of Jotham, Jotham the father of Ahaz, Ahaz the father of Hezekiah. Hezekiah became the father of Manasseh, Manasseh the father of Amos, Amos the father of Josiah. Josiah became the father of Jechoniah and his brothers at the time of the Babylonian exile. After the Babylonian exile, Jechoniah became the father of Shealtiel, Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel, Zerubbabel the father of Abiud. Abiud became the father of Eliakim, Eliakim the father of Azor, Azor the father of Zadok. Zadok became the father of Achim, Achim the father of Eliud, Eliud the father of Eleazar. Eleazar became the father of Matthan, Matthan the father of Jacob, Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary. Of her was born Jesus who is called the Christ. Thus the total number of generations from Abraham to David is fourteen generations; from David to the Babylonian exile, fourteen generations; from the Babylonian exile to the Christ, fourteen generations. Now this is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about. When his mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found with child through the Holy Spirit. Joseph her husband, since he was a righteous man, yet unwilling to expose her to shame, decided to divorce her quietly. Such was his intention when, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home. For it is through the Holy Spirit that this child has been conceived in her. She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins." All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet: Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel, which means "God is with us." When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took his wife into his home. He had no relations with her until she bore a son, and he named him Jesus.

Profession of Faith:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(All bow towards the tabernacle)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Administrator's Note

My Dear Friends,

On this beautiful Christmas Day where gift giving will be exchanged, dinners prepared, and families together, I would like to ask a question. "Are we ready to receive Him?" "Are we ready to receive the greatest gift of all?" It's a simple question, and it deserves to be answered. We know Joseph and Mary were searching for a place to rest. They were unable to find a place, but finally found shelter. Question? If Joseph and Mary were searching for a home for Jesus, would they choose your home and ALL that it holds? Every family has a lot of baggage, but the question is sincere and direct, can our home be a place for Joseph and Mary to find rest?

I'm not talking about placing them under the Christmas tree, or to use as an ornament. I'm talking about would Joseph and Mary choose our home to bring our Savior into the world? I truly believe this is just a beautiful question to ask. I began this bulletin article with a simple question, "Are we ready to receive Him?" It's a self-reflective question which should challenge us by looking at ourselves and our family. We are having so many problems in the world in which our families deal with pain and suffering. One of the major reasons many homes are not prepared for the coming of Jesus is because we have no peace in our families. Saint Mother Teresa once said, "we have thousands of broken homes." She was not talking about the holes on the walls or supplies needed to buy at Home Depot or Lowes. Saint Mother Teresa was speaking about healing broken relationships which need to heal within families. Struggles, hurt, abandonment, violence, addictions, lies, etc., have invaded our families. Our interpretations may vary from family to family, as well as the level of brokenness, but one thing can be made clear, we are all given the opportunity to grow and be a part of the family of Christ. Our homes should be showing compassion, kindness, and love. Does our home and our family reflect the true meaning of Christmas?

Many of us have a manger in our homes. Some of us have it under the Christmas tree, while others have it on display in areas around the house. One thing is for certain, Jesus, Mary, and Joseph displayed love, peace, and joy. Where it was cold, they brought warmth. Where it was dark, they brought light. Where there was despair, there was hope. This is what all families need to strive for. If we are having problems at home, why don't we try to resemble the First Family of Nazareth? Let us be a family that welcomes our Lord this Christmas, so we can welcome our families with compassion, kindness, and love. Let us begin to be a family of hope, so we can welcome our Lord to our homes.

In the Second week of Advent, we heard the Gospel proclaim, "Prepare the way of the Lord."

How has our families prepared for this day?

Merry Christmas,

Fr. Junior

Queridos amigos,

En este hermoso día de Navidad en el que se intercambiarán regalos, se prepararán cenas y se reunirán las familias, me gustaría hacer una pregunta. "¿Estamos preparados para recibirla?" "¿Estamos preparados para recibir el mayor regalo de todos?". Es una pregunta sencilla, y merece una respuesta. Sabemos que José y María buscaban un lugar para descansar. No lograron encontrar un lugar, pero finalmente hallaron refugio. ¿La pregunta? Si José y María estuvieran buscando un hogar para Jesús, elegirían tu casa y TODO lo que contiene? Cada familia tiene mucho equipaje, pero la pregunta es sincera y directa, ¿podría ser nuestro hogar un lugar para que José y María encuentren descanso?

No estoy hablando de colocarlos bajo el árbol de Navidad, o de usarlos como adorno. Estoy hablando de si José y María elegirían nuestro hogar para traer a nuestro Salvador al mundo. Creo sinceramente que es una hermosa pregunta. Comencé este artículo del boletín con una pregunta sencilla: "¿Estamos preparados para recibirla?". Es una pregunta auto-reflexiva que debería desafiarlos mirándonos a nosotros mismos y a nuestra familia. Tenemos tantos problemas en el mundo en los que nuestras familias se enfrentan al dolor y al sufrimiento. Una de las principales razones por las que muchos hogares no están preparados para la venida de Jesús es porque no tenemos paz en nuestras familias. La Santa Madre Teresa dijo una vez: "tenemos miles de hogares rotos". Ella no estaba hablando de los hoyos en las paredes o de los materiales necesarios para comprar en Home Depot o Lowes. Santa Madre Teresa estaba hablando de sanar relaciones rotas que necesitan sanar dentro de las familias. Las luchas, el dolor, el abandono, la violencia, las adicciones, las mentiras, etc., han invadido nuestras familias. Nuestras interpretaciones pueden variar de familia a familia, así como el nivel de ruptura, pero una cosa puede quedar clara, a todos se nos da la oportunidad de crecer y ser parte de la familia de Cristo. Nuestros hogares deberían mostrar compasión, bondad y amor. ¿Refleja nuestro hogar y nuestra familia el verdadero significado de la Navidad? Muchos de nosotros tenemos un pesebre en casa. Algunos de nosotros lo tenemos debajo del árbol de Navidad, mientras que otros lo tienen en exhibición en áreas alrededor de la casa. Una cosa es segura: Jesús, María y José mostraron amor, paz y alegría. Donde hacia frío, llevaban calor. Donde había oscuridad, llevaban luz. Donde había desesperación, había esperanza. Esto es lo que todas las familias deben procurar. Si tenemos problemas en casa, ¿por qué no intentamos parecernos a la Primera Familia de Nazaret? Seamos una familia que acoge al Señor esta Navidad, para que podamos acoger a nuestras familias con compasión, bondad y amor. Empecemos a ser una familia de esperanza, para que podamos acoger a nuestro Señor en nuestros hogares.

En la segunda semana de Adviento, oímos al Evangelio proclamar: "Preparad el camino del Señor".

¿Cómo se han preparado nuestras familias para este día?

Feliz Navidad,

P. Junior
