Readings for the Second Sunday of Advent

First Reading: Is 11:1-10

On that day, a shoot shall sprout from the stump of Jesse, and from his roots a bud shall blossom. The spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him: a spirit of wisdom and of understanding, a spirit of counsel and of strength, a spirit of knowledge and of fear of the LORD, and his delight shall be the fear of the LORD. Not by appearance shall he judge, nor by hearsay shall he decide, but he shall judge the poor with justice, and decide aright for the land's afflicted. He shall strike the ruthless with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall slay the wicked. Justice shall be the band around his waist, and faithfulness a belt upon his hips. Then the wolf shall be a guest of the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; the calf and the young lion shall browse together, with a little child to guide them. The cow and the bear shall be neighbors, together their young shall rest; the lion shall eat hay like the ox. The baby shall play by the cobra's den, and the child lay his hand on the adder's lair. There shall be no harm or ruin on all my holy mountain; or the earth shall be filled with knowledge of the LORD, as water covers the sea. On that day, the root of Jesse, set up as a signal for the nations, the Gentiles shall seek out, for his dwelling shall be glorious.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 72:1-2, 7-8, 12-13, 17

R. Justice shall flourish in his time, and fullness of peace for ever.

O God, with your judgment endow the king, and with your justice, the king's son; he shall govern your people with justice and your afflicted ones with judgment.

R. Justice shall flourish in his time, and fullness of peace for ever.

Justice shall flower in his days, and profound peace, till the moon be no more. May he rule from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

R. Justice shall flourish in his time, and fullness of peace for ever.

For he shall rescue the poor when he cries out, and the afflicted when he has no one to help him. He shall have pity for the lowly and the poor; the lives of the poor he shall save.

R. Justice shall flourish in his time, and fullness of peace for ever.

May his name be blessed forever; as long as the sun his name shall remain. In him shall all the tribes of the earth be blessed;

all the nations shall proclaim his happiness.

R. Justice shall flourish in his time, and fullness of peace for ever.

Second Reading: Rom 15:4-9

Brothers and sisters: Whatever was written previously was written for our instruction, that by endurance and by the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to think in harmony with one another, in keeping with Christ Jesus, that with one accord you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Welcome one another, then, as Christ welcomed you, for the glory of God. For I say that Christ became a minister of the circumcised to show God's truthfulness, to confirm the promises to the patriarchs, but so that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written: Therefore, I will praise you among the Gentiles and sing praises to your name.

Alleluia: Lk 3:4, 6

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths: all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel: Mt 3:1-12

John the Baptist appeared, preaching in the desert of Judea and saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!" It was of him that the prophet Isaiah had spoken when he said: A voice of one crying out in the desert, Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths John wore clothing made of camel's hair and had a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey. At that time Jerusalem, all Judea, and the whole region around the Jordan were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the Jordan River as they acknowledged their sins. When he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? Produce good fruit as evidence of your repentance. And do not presume to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I tell you, God can raise up children to Abraham from these stones. Even now the ax lies at the root of the trees. Therefore every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire. I am baptizing you with water, for repentance, but the one who is coming after me is mightier than I. I am not worthy to carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fan is in his hand. He will clear his threshing floor and gather his wheat into his barn, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire."

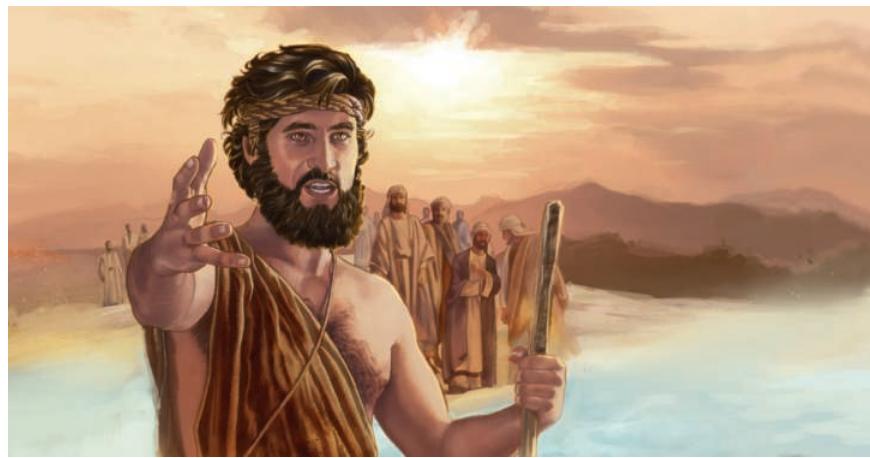

"Profession of Faith:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

(All bow towards the tabernacle)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Administrator's Note

My Dear Friends!

What is the time of Advent for us? Is it a time of growth? Just like a flower that blooms, or are we a flower that withers during this time of year. We use these Advent days to stir up hope, to bring the seed in which our Lord planted - to full bloom. For those of us that see through the "eyes of faith" know that the Lord has come...we are certain that the Lord will come. It's important to realize we are not to be in fear and in dread everyday of our lives. We who are disciples of Christ are "Preparing the Way of the Lord" and waiting for His second coming. We try to "Stay Awake" as our Gospel of last week reminded us. Are you happy with what the Good Lord has accomplished in your life? I want to believe He is not done with us yet. We are a work in progress and we have much to do. For us as Christians we must strive for deepening of our faith and love to one another, plus not allow the evil one to destroy this Advent season for us. Perhaps we still walk along crooked paths because we take our eyes off the Lord. We find it easy not to challenge ourselves with the Gospels. This Advent we all have many conflicts to resolve, problems to answer, and people to forgive, as well as be forgiven. This Advent season should be one for readiness and care for the coming of the Lord. Jesus is waiting, patiently, compassionately. He wants so very much to come into each of our lives - completely and totally. So we try again during these special days of Advent to clear the way for Him. The central message of our Advent is that the Lord has come, He has taken away the curse of our sins, He has baptized us in the Holy Spirit, He has comforted us; He has come like a good shepherd to gather the lambs in His arms. But His coming is an ongoing mystery. He needs us and uses us to "make straight His paths." We are called to hasten His coming in our own time and place. We continue to "prepare the way of the Lord." We continue to proclaim the "good news:" Jesus, Emmanuel, God-With-Us, has Come, is Coming and will come!

Blessings,

Fr. Junior

¡Mis queridos amigos!

¿Cuál es el tiempo de Adviento para nosotros? ¿Es un momento de crecimiento? Al igual que una flor que florece, o somos una flor que se marchita durante esta época del año. Usamos estos días de Adviento para despertar la esperanza, para llevar a plena floración la semilla en la que nuestro Señor plantó. Porque aquellos de nosotros que vemos a través de los "ojos de la fe" sabemos que el Señor ha venido ... estamos seguros de que el Señor vendrá. Es importante darse cuenta de que no debemos tener miedo y temor todos los días de nuestras vidas. Nosotros que somos discípulos de Cristo somos "Preparando el Camino del Señor" y esperando Su segunda venida. Tratamos de "permanecer despiertos" como nos recordó nuestro Evangelio de la semana pasada. ¿Estás contento con lo que el Buen Dios ha logrado en tu vida? Quiero creer que Él aún no ha terminado con nosotros. Somos un trabajo en progreso y tenemos mucho que hacer. Para nosotros, como cristianos, debemos esforzarnos por profundizar nuestra fe y amor mutuos, además de no permitir que el maligno destruya esta temporada de Adviento para nosotros. Tal vez todavía caminamos por senderos torcidos porque quitamos nuestros ojos del Señor. Nos resulta fácil no desafiarnos a nosotros mismos con los Evangelios. Este Adviento todos tenemos muchos conflictos que resolver, problemas que responder y personas que perdonar, así como ser perdonadas. Esta temporada de Adviento debe ser una para la preparación y el cuidado de la venida del Señor. Jesús está esperando, pacientemente, compasivamente. Él quiere tanto entrar en cada una de nuestras vidas, completa y totalmente. Así que intentamos de nuevo durante estos días especiales de Adviento despejar el camino para Él. El mensaje central de nuestro Adviento es que el Señor ha venido, Él ha quitado la maldición de nuestros pecados, Él nos ha bautizado en el Espíritu Santo, Él nos ha consolado; Él ha venido como un buen pastor para recoger los corderos en Sus brazos. Pero Su venida es un misterio continuo. Él nos necesita y nos usa para "enderezar Sus sendas". Estamos llamados a apresurar Su venida en nuestro propio tiempo y lugar. Continuamos "preparando el camino del Señor". Continuamos proclamando las "buenas nuevas": ¡Jesús, Emmanuel, Dios-Con-Nosotros, ha venido, viene y vendrá!

FYI From Father Junior!

Please be advised that any advertisements for ministries and/or events cannot be hung on Church property without the prior approval of Fr. Junior. Unauthorized postings will be taken down.

To better aid the spiritual practices of our parishioners, anyone who would like religious articles blessed are asked to drop the items off in a bag at the parish office with your name and phone number. After one of the priests have blessed the items, the office staff will call for the articles to be picked up.

All major Mass celebrations will be held at Sacred Heart Church this year. We will begin to alternate Churches each year, with next year being held at St. Isidore the Farmer Church.

Please remember to not park in the area designated for priest parking at St. Isidore's.

Thank you,

Fr. Junior

IN THE SPIRIT OF GIVING
The Family Life Committee of Christ the Good Shepherd Parish would like to invite you to attend Mass on the weekend of December 10th and 11th. In the spirit of giving gifts as St. Nicholas did, at all the weekend Masses, the Family Life Committee is asking parishioners/families to bring a gift of gloves, scarves, hats, or socks for the needy of our community. Your gifts will be brought up to the altar at the Offertory. The gifts do not have to be wrapped. There will be decorated boxes at the doors of both churches. Your donations will be given to St. Vincent DePaul to be distributed.

St. Nicholas was a Bishop who provided for the poor and sick. He always brought gifts of fruit particularly oranges to the children, in his spirit of giving, may we continue his generosity to our community.

The stage play, written by Warren Shaul and directed by Carol Polaha, is an interaction of the writing in acting, music, dancing and visual enhancements. The part of Jesus will be played by Kristoffer Polaha, who is known for his roles in Hallmark movies. "The Writing of the Revelation," features the visions of John the Apostle, his loyal friend polycarp, and the corrupt acts of Jezebel, a host of community members and musicians. The story reveals how the book was written and it contains the seven blessings that all who read it and see it are given.
