Readings for the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Is 49:3, 5-6

The LORD said to me: You are my servant, Israel, through whom I show my glory. Now the LORD has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb, that Jacob may be brought back to him and Israel gathered to him; and I am made glorious in the sight of the LORD, and my God is now my strength! It is too little, the LORD says, for you to be my servant, to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and restore the survivors of Israel; I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 40:2, 4, 7-8, 8-9, 10

R. Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will.

I have waited, waited for the LORD, and he stooped toward me and heard my cry. And he put a new song into my mouth, a hymn to our God.

R. Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will.

Sacrifice or offering you wished not, but ears open to obedience you gave me. Holocausts or sin-offerings you sought not; then said I, "Behold I come."

R. Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will.

"In the written scroll it is prescribed for me, to do your will, O my God, is my delight, and your law is within my heart!"

R. Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will.

I announced your justice in the vast assembly; I did not restrain my lips, as you, O LORD, know.

R. Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will.

Second Reading: 1 Cor 1:1-3

Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, to the church of God that is in Corinth, to you who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be holy, with all those everywhere who call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Alleluia: Jn 1:14a, 12a

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

The Word of God became flesh and dwelt among us. To those who accepted him, he gave power to become children of God.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel: Jn 1:29-34

John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. He is the one of whom I said, 'A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.' I did not know him, but the reason why I came baptizing with water was that he might be made known to Israel." John testified further, saying, "I saw the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven and remain upon him. I did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'On whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain, he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.' Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God."

Profession of Faith:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

(All bow towards the tabernacle)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

John 1, 29-34

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Administrator's Note

My Dears Friends,

We say at mass when we recite the Lamb of God:

*Lamb of God you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God you take away the sin of the world, grant us peace.*

Do we want peace in our lives? If we do, it's through Jesus Christ.

In our Gospel reading last week, we heard how the Magi, "having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way." My thoughts when reflecting on the final lines are very clear. When one encounters the living God, we begin to do things a different way. Our journey just like the Magi will be taken through a different road.

We become disciples of Jesus Christ when we ask the "Lamb of God" for Mercy. Mercy for our sinfulness. Mercy for our salvation. We want "peace." When this realization happens, we can begin our journey. Being disciples, we are called to give witness, we are called to give testimony on how Jesus has revealed Himself to us in our lives.

In today's Gospel John the Baptist said when he saw Jesus coming: "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!" John the Baptist is still pointing to Christ, continuing his witness as to the identity of who the Christ is.

Question? As followers of Jesus Christ do our actions in our lives point to Him? Are we a reflection of Jesus' identity in our lives?

John the Baptist said, "there goes the Lamb of God." He pointed, he directed, and he steered his disciples, and the people he was ministering to Jesus Christ. The way to our salvation is through Jesus Christ. We are reminded in today's Gospel, which comes exactly after the occurrence between the delegation of religious leaders (Pharisees and Sadducees), where John with authority labeled them a bunch of "brood-vipers." He knew how corrupted and hypocritical both delegations were, and John showed them his own identity. John the Baptist did not speak of himself to the delegation but continued to speak of the Messiah.

My dear friends, because of our "sin" we fall at times in the categories of our passions, desires, selfishness, and bad choices. When we realize in our lives, we need to be forgiven for our "sins" we have begun to allow Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world in our lives. It's in allowing Him into our lives, we can have salvation.

So, I ask again, "is our Christian identity" reflecting Jesus Christ.

Blessings,

Fr. Junior

Queridos amigos,

Decimos en misa cuando recitamos el Cordero de Dios:

*Cordero de Dios que quitas el pecado del mundo, ten piedad de nosotros.
Cordero de Dios que quitas el pecado del mundo, ten piedad de nosotros.
Cordero de Dios que quitas el pecado del mundo, danos la paz.*

¿Queremos paz en nuestras vidas? Si es así, es a través de Jesucristo.

En nuestra lectura del Evangelio de la semana pasada, escuchamos cómo los Magos, "habiendo sido advertidos en sueños de que no volvieran a Herodes, partieron hacia su país por otro camino". Mis pensamientos al reflexionar sobre las últimas líneas son muy claros. Cuando uno se encuentra con el Dios vivo, empieza a hacer las cosas de otra manera. Nuestro viaje, al igual que el de los Magos, transcurre por un camino diferente.

Nos convertimos en discípulos de Jesucristo cuando pedimos al "Cordero de Dios" Misericordia. Misericordia por nuestra pecaminosidad. Misericordia por nuestra salvación. Queremos "paz". Cuando nos damos cuenta de esto, podemos comenzar nuestro camino. Siendo discípulos, estamos llamados a dar testimonio, estamos llamados a dar testimonio de cómo Jesús se nos ha revelado en nuestras vidas.

En el Evangelio de hoy, Juan el Bautista dijo cuando vio venir a Jesús: "He aquí el Cordero de Dios, que quita el pecado del mundo". Juan el Bautista sigue señalando a Cristo, continuando su testimonio sobre la identidad de quién es el Cristo.

¿Preguntas? Como seguidores de Jesucristo, ¿señalan nuestras acciones a Él? ¿Somos un reflejo de la identidad de Jesús en nuestras vidas?

Juan el Bautista dijo: "Ahí va el Cordero de Dios". Señaló, dirigió y orientó a sus discípulos y a la gente a la que ministraba hacia Jesucristo. El camino hacia nuestra salvación pasa por Jesucristo. Nos lo recuerda el Evangelio de hoy, que viene exactamente después del suceso entre la delegación de líderes religiosos (fariseos y saduceos), donde Juan con autoridad los tachó de pandilla de "vividores de la prole". Sabía lo corruptas e hipócritas que eran ambas delegaciones, y Juan les mostró su propia identidad. Juan el Bautista no habló de sí mismo a la delegación, sino que siguió hablando del Mesías.

Mis queridos amigos, debido a nuestro "pecado" a veces caemos en las categorías de nuestras pasiones, deseos, egoísmo y malas decisiones. Cuando nos damos cuenta en nuestras vidas, que necesitamos ser perdonados por nuestros "pecados" hemos comenzado a permitir a Jesucristo, el Cordero de Dios, que quita el pecado del mundo en nuestras vidas. Es permitiéndole a Él en nuestras vidas, que podemos tener salvación.

Entonces, pregunto otra vez, "es nuestra identidad cristiana" reflejando a Jesucristo.

Bendiciones,

Fr. Junior

FYI From Father Junior!

Please be advised that any advertisements for ministries and/or events cannot be hung on Church property without the prior approval of Fr. Junior. Unauthorized postings will be taken down.

To better aid the spiritual practices of our parishioners, anyone who would like religious articles blessed are asked to drop the items off in a bag at the parish office with your name and phone number. After one of the priests have blessed the items, the office staff will call for the articles to be picked up.

All major Mass celebrations will be held at Sacred Heart Church this year. We will begin to alternate Churches each year, with next year being held at St. Isidore the Farmer Church.

Please remember to not park in the area designated for priest parking at St. Isidore's.

Thank you,

Fr. Junior

Epiphany Home Blessing

At one time or another, many have seen the chalk markings on the inside or outside lintel of a door. What does this mean? On the Feast of the Epiphany, we celebrate the Magi visiting the infant Jesus to honor Him as the come Messiah. The tradition has been for families to gather with the parish priest who blesses the entrance door for Jesus to be a daily guest in the home. The markings are made with blessed chalk representing the new year and the first initials of the Magi 20+C+M+B+23, along with the family reciting prayers with the priest. The rooms of the home are also blessed with holy water.

Father Infanti will offer this blessing for the homes of any parishioners who would like to have the Epiphany Home Blessing. The markings are traditionally done with blessed chalk on the lintel OR by placing a printed marker instead. If you would like your home blessed, please call the office (856) 691-9077 and a time for the blessing can be scheduled on a Monday, Wednesday or Saturday January through February.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION PLEASE READ

Due to parishioners at Christ the Good Shepherd Parish, we have been out sourcing our bulk mailing for many years. Monthly collection envelopes and holiday envelopes are two of the services provided. As with most bulk mailing companies, envelope information must be submitted two months prior to the new mailing company. Unbeknownst to us, the company we were using closed their mailing department and has given our account to a new mailing company. Since this change, we have experienced issues and delays with our bulk mailings and parishioner collection envelopes. We have been diligently working with our contact at the new mailing company to correct this issue, with poor results.

In the new year, Christ the Good Shepherd Parish will be looking for a new company for bulk mailings and collection envelopes. We apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused. Until this is resolved, please use regular envelopes writing your name and envelope number, if you have it, so you can still get credit for your tithes.

The Knights of Columbus Araneo Chapter is partnering with Cape May County New Jersey Right to Life to sponsor a bus trip to the 2023 March for Life in Washington, DC. The bus is a first-class touring coach with on-board restroom and will make very brief stops along the way for meals and bathroom breaks; there is no cost to passengers for the bus transportation, but drivers are responsible for their own meals/refreshments and we ask at least $5.00 each toward a tip for the driver.

The March for Life is an inspiring, peaceful, vibrant, and joy-filled rally of women, men, young people, and children from all across the country. Every year, tens of thousands of pro-lifers converge on the National Mall and march on Capitol Hill on the anniversary of the Supreme Court's 1973 Roe v. Wade ruling which legalized abortion in all 50 states. It's the largest annual human rights demonstration in the world. But this is not simply a protest: TOGETHER, WE GATHER TO CELEBRATE LIFE. We celebrate each and every life, from the moment of conception. We envision a world where every life is celebrated, valued, and protected.

Even with the wonderful blessing of Roe v. Wade being overturned, which allows more freedom at the state level to enact pro-life laws, the necessary work to build a culture of life in the United States of America is not finished. Rather, it is focused differently. Sadly, the number of abortions annually is still well over 900,000 each year, and that number is expected to decrease only by roughly 200,000 in a post-Roe America. Many national legislative battles loom, including even keeping longstanding Hyde protections, which limit government funding for abortion on annual appropriation bills. The Hyde Amendment has saved over 2 million lives and is arguably the most impactful pro-life policy in our nation's history, but now cannot be taken for granted. Last, our most important work is changing hearts and minds. The goal of the national March for Life is to not only change laws at the state and federal level, but to change the culture to ultimately make abortion unthinkable.

This year's theme is Next Steps: Marching in a Post-Roe America

The Pre-March Rally features a live concert and inspiring speeches from pro-life leaders, sharing how to stay involved in the pro-life movement all year long. The March for Life will begin immediately following the Rally starting between 12th and 14th Streets, marching peacefully up Constitution Avenue to the steps of the US Capitol Building; more information can be found at: www.MarchForLife.org

The tentative and approximate schedule for the day is as follows:
 06:00 – Depart Toni Morrison Service Area, milepost 18 Garden State Pkwy, Ocean View, NJ 08230
 06:30 – Depart St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church, 591 New Jersey Ave, Absecon, NJ 08201

CTGS Nurse Updates For January 2023

January 16th : Blood Donor Awareness

According to the American Red Cross, every two seconds, someone in the United States needs a blood or platelet transfusion. Nearly 16 Million blood components are transfused in the U.S. each year to cancer patients, trauma victims, patients with acute or chronic illnesses (such as those with sickle cell disease or severe burns), and patients requiring emergency or complex surgeries. In addition to red blood cells, blood donations can provide platelets and plasma which can help reduce the risk of bleeding in trauma and cancer patients and those requiring emergency surgery. One blood donation can help save more than one life as various components (plasma, platelets, red blood cells) can go to different patients. The process to become a blood donor via the American Red Cross is simple...

- Register as a new donor (complete basic eligibility screening and provide demographic information) – you will be contacted to schedule an appointment
- Answer a few questions about your health, medication, and travel history in a confidential interview and have your vital signs assessed
- Donating whole blood takes only about 8 – 10 minutes (other types of donations, such as platelet donations may take up to two hours)
- You will be monitored for 10-15 minutes (and provided refreshments!) after your donation

ALL MADE BY THE PANICHELLI FAMILY

The Panichelli Family have featured their recipes in restaurants & pizzerias for over 45 years. Our Chef for the Family Dinner, Anthony, began working at his father's restaurant called Nicasio's at the age of 11 learning how to properly prepare each delicious recipe. In 1998 The Panichelli family opened Panichelli's Pizza in Gloucester County NJ, and in 1999 added the restaurant & catering. Anthony Panichelli, parishioner at St. Padre Pio, continues catering to bring his family recipes and traditions to family tables across South Jersey. Now you can order a delicious homemade dinner and taste the tradition!
