Readings for Sixth Sunday of Easter*First Reading: Acts 8:5-8, 14-17

Philip went down to the city of Samaria and proclaimed the Christ to them. With one accord, the crowds paid attention to what was said by Philip when they heard it and saw the signs he was doing. For unclean spirits, crying out in a loud voice, came out of many possessed people, and many paralyzed or crippled people were cured. There was great joy in that city. Now when the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent them Peter and John, who went down and prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit, for it had not yet fallen upon any of them; they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 66:1-3, 4-5, 6-7, 16, 20

R. Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Shout joyfully to God, all the earth, sing praise to the glory of his name; proclaim his glorious praise. Say to God, "How tremendous are your deeds!"

R. Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

"Let all on earth worship and sing praise to you, sing praise to your name! "Come and see the works of God, his tremendous deeds among the children of Adam.

R. Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Hear now, all you who fear God, while I declare what he has done for me. Blessed be God who refused me not my prayer or his kindness!

R. Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Second Reading: 1 Pt 3:15-18

Beloved: Sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts. Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope, but do it with gentleness and reverence, keeping your conscience clear, so that, when you are maligned, those who defame your good conduct in Christ may themselves be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that be the will of God, than for doing evil. For Christ also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the sake of the unrighteous, that he might lead you to God. Put to death in the flesh, he was brought to life in the Spirit.

Alleluia: Jn 14:23

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord, and my Father will love him and we will come to him.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel: Jn 14:15-21

Jesus said to his disciples: "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows him. But you know him, because he remains with you, and will be in you. I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me, because I live and you will live. On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me. And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him."

Profession of Faith:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(All bow towards the tabernacle)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Administrator's Note

My Dear Friends,

This Easter Season has made me be reflective as person, and as a man of God, especially, to those who I serve. We hear in today's Gospel, "Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me."

Question: What is love? The secular world will tell us what worldly love is, but not the love of the Lord. Worldly love comes in so many ways, that it has been given so many names. There is family love, friendship love, brotherly love, physical love, community love, sport love, and so on. Whatever we want to call it there is only one true love. Love is "the deliberate act of valuing someone else more than you value yourself. Love is the deliberate act of caring for and listening to someone else, more than you value yourself. Love is the deliberate act of wanting others to succeed, more than you value yourself." My dear friends, love is unconditional and does not set limits for others because of selfishness.

If we follow Christ, we don't follow with the mentality of the world. We follow Jesus Christ as disciples and hearers of His Word. Love is not selfish, nor is it self-centered. Love is not jealous, nor does it hate. When we allow ourselves to manipulate or distort the word love in our mind, we become confused and fearful of what our journey with Christ should be.

God made us to love and to be loved. God loves us! If we are honest, there are many times in Church, our families, and friendships, we don't reflect the love of God as well as we should.

Question? Do we keep the Lord's Commandment of love? In the opening line of the Gospel today, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments." Those who follow and hear the Lord's command will be sent the Advocate, "The Spirit of Truth," and as disciples of the Lord, "The truth, will set you free."

I ask everyone to pray for all those who are facing opposition, hatred, and persecution, but most importantly pray for yourselves that the Spirit of Truth may always guide you to be the disciples you were meant to be in the "Eyes of God."

May the Lord continue to bless you this Easter Season,

Fr. Junior

DEI ET APOSTOLICAE SEDIS GRATIA
EPISCOPUS CAMDENSIS

DECREE REGARDING PARISH MASS SCHEDULES
IN THE DIOCESE OF CAMDEN

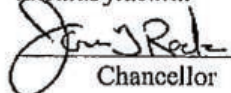

In order to better address the declining number of priests in the presbyterate of the Diocese of Camden, along with the decline in Mass attendance, and having taken counsel with both the Presbyteral Council and the Vicars Forane, in exercising vigilance over the celebration of the sacraments, in accord with canon 392 §2 of the Code of Canon Law, in order that the pastoral effort regarding the celebration of Mass may be more effective for the building up of the ecclesiastical community and so as to not overburden the priests of the diocese, allowing them to more adequately fulfill their ministry (cf. Eucharisticum mysterium, 25), I hereby decree the following in regards to Mass schedules in the Diocese of Camden:

1. A parish may have one Saturday evening Mass.
2. A parish may have two Sunday Masses if there is only one full-time priest assigned to the parish.
3. A parish may have one additional Mass on Sunday per full-time or part-time priest assigned to the parish as long as those Masses have an attendance of at least 60% of the capacity of the church building. A change in the Mass schedule will need to be made when staffing changes at the parish.
4. Parishes that serve the Latino community should incorporate the Mass celebrated in the Spanish language into the parish Mass schedule in accord with the guidelines above.
5. Parishes in the shore region of the diocese will need to plan, on an annual basis, the number of Masses they require and are able to cover. By May 1st of each year, pastors of shore parishes are to file their summer Mass schedule and coverage plan with the Office of the Chancellor.
6. In parishes with only one priest; the parish weekday Mass schedules may reflect the pastor's day off by having no Mass scheduled on that day. In addition, when the pastor is on vacation, the weekday Masses may be suspended. Eucharistic services are NOT TO BE CONDUCTED on these occasions; the faithful are to be provided with nearby parish Mass schedules so that they may participate in Mass.

This decree takes effect on July 1, 2023.

Given at the Chancery of the Diocese of Camden on this the 8th day of August, 2022.

April 26, 2023

Dear Parishioners of Christ the Good Shepherd Parish,

From time to time, each parish experiences a change in administration. For some parishioners these periods of transition can be difficult, especially when they occur after a period of relative parish stability. However, when these changes take place, they must be marked by the virtue that has since Apostolic times and should be a hallmark of the Christian community: Love.

I say this because there are groups within Christ the Good Shepherd Parish who believe it is acceptable to make scurrilous remarks about the priests and parish staff in written communications which they do not have the courage to sign. The latest of these came from the so-called "Saint Longinus Society of Christ the Good Shepherd Parish." A self-named group that has no proper standing within the parish.

In their document they accuse Father Flores of financial improprieties because they conducted a "forensic audit." The "forensic audit" they undertook was simply to add together the sums reported in the parish bulletin for the weekly collection and compare them to the revenue and expenditure sheet also found in the parish bulletin and dated December 31st. The so-called "Society" found that $566,359.19 was reported in the parish bulletin while the December 31st report provided by Preziosi Accounting Services totaled $284,234. The same so-called "Society" then suggested that the difference, $282,125.19 was missing, inferring that Father Flores had stolen the money. At the end of their letter, the Society raises concern that Father Flores is co-owner of a property at the shore, again alluding that he must be using parish funds to maintain his private home.

The problem is that the report, which is one of four posted each year in the parish bulletin, is a report of the second quarter of the fiscal year (which begins in July) that records figures from July 1st through December 31st and cannot be compared to the annual sum they calculated from the weekly reports. Upon receiving the so-called "Society's" "forensic audit" (which is NO forensic audit), I met with the diocesan finance department to review the financial statements for Christ the Good Shepherd Parish. The facts show that the parish received $591,932.94 in ordinary income for the year ending December 31, 2022. That amount is higher than the audited figure reported in the parish bulletins.

My office and others that comprise the Chancery of the Diocese of Camden take parishioner concerns very seriously and we answer letters that are typed or handwritten, received through the postal service, that are signed by the author and provide verifiable contact information. It is impossible to respond to threatening letters from individuals or "societies" who do not have the courage nor Christian charity to stand behind their words and provide proper contact information.

The so-called "Society of Saint Longinus" threatens to take their concerns to court stating that "if [our] requirements [which are really demands which they have no right to make] for an out-of-court settlement are not met, rest assured we will not hesitate to have warrants and subpoenas issued for these individuals and other persons of interest." I would welcome such actions because they would require this group of cowards to disclose their identities.

On behalf of Bishop Sullivan, I express fraternal support for Father Junior Flores and pray that he will continue his ministry of guiding the faithful in Vineland and building up the Parish of the Good Shepherd. On this Sunday when your parish celebrates its feast day, I hope that each of you will pray for your priests and for an increase in vocations to the priesthood in the Diocese of Camden.

With prayerful best wishes in this Easter Season, I am,

Sincerely in Christ,
